WELCOME

Dear Colleagues,

We'd like to personally welcome each of you to the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery's 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting. On behalf of the AACS Board of Trustees and the Annual Scientific Committee, welcome to beautiful San Diego. With an incredible roster of distinguished faculty and lecturers, together we will "focus on mastery." The field of cosmetic surgery is ever-evolving, and this meeting offers an exciting arena in which we can bring together inspired and inquisitive people to share their ideas and innovations to ensure our society remains at the cutting edge of advancements.

Many master lectures have been added to this year's meeting that cover such specialties as regenerative medicine and surgery, oculoplastics, dermatology, and plastic surgery. Further highlights on important topics affecting our field include hair restoration, liposuction, face lift, and jurisprudence. So critical to a practice's success, cosmetic surgery patient safety is emphasized from the opening of the pre-conference Cadaver Workshop to the end of the program, culminating with the venerable Complications Session. Fat grafting to the buttocks, and advocacy for the safe practice thereof, among all the procedures we celebrate within our specialty, is at the top of our collective minds; this meeting will focus on this critical topic thoroughly and with deserving respect.

As we introduced at last year's meeting, this year's program will also strive to pack in the most concise, stimulating education sessions followed by some wonderful "wind down" events, such as coffee breaks, the Passport Prizes game in the Exhibit Hall, or the Webster Society Gala, where you can continue to exchange ideas and knowledge in a less formal setting. In addition, the two-day track for our Allied Health colleagues will be filled with many practical pearls and insights that can be put into immediate practice upon their return to the office.

We'd like to thank each of you for attending this annual meeting. We are eager to share the exciting achievements that have occurred in our field since we last met and to stimulate the ideas and accomplishments that will steer the year ahead. It is the engagement and vision that each of you bring to our society and to our meetings that guide the AACS as it paves the way as the leader in the field of cosmetic surgery.

Warmest regards,

Alex Sobel, DO, FAACS

COVID-19 HEALTH & SAFETY PROTOCOLS TO MAINTAIN A SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Participating in the AACS 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting during the ongoing pandemic carries risk due to the contagious nature of the COVID-19 virus and the fact that the Meeting will be held indoors with a large number of attendees. Attendees and guests are required to either be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 or have received a negative COVID test at least one week before the start of the Meeting. The AACS relies on attendees' and guests' representations and does not independently verify vaccination status or negative test results.

Masks may be required in indoor spaces unless actively eating or drinking in accordance with current local regulations.

The AACS follows the guidelines and restrictions set forth by San Diego County within the city limits of San Diego, CA. The Manchester Grand Hyatt San Diego is responsible for enforcing these guidelines.

Dr. Richard Webster

DR. RICHARD WEBSTER'S LEGACY (1918-1994)

Richard Webster, MD referred to as "the father of cosmetic surgery," was instrumental in the formation of the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery. As the first AACS President, 1985-1987, his organizational practices reflected his vision of cosmetic surgeons from multiple surgical specialties teaching and learning from one another.

As AACS continues to grow and change, Dr. Webster's philosophy still guides the organization and is reflected in the current mission statement, a "multi-disciplinary professional association advancing excellence and safety in cosmetic surgery and aesthetic medicine."

His emphasis on education is built into a current strategic pillar, "AACS seeks to raise the standard of cosmetic surgical practice and improve the quality of care for cosmetic surgery patients."

Dr. Webster's legacy is weaved into the Annual Scientific Meeting programming. The Cosmetic Surgery Foundation Webster Lecturer recognizes a leader that has advanced the cosmetic surgery specialty. Webster Society donations fund cosmetic surgery education for the next generation of cosmetic surgeons. Finally, Dr. Webster's lasting imprint is celebrated at the Webster Dinner.

WEBSTER LECTURER

Jeffrey A. Klein, MD, MPH

2023 Webster Lecture

SESSION 16

Friday | Feb 10, 2023 | 9:00AM

In 1985 Jeffrey A. Klein, MD invented the tumescent technique for local anesthesia consisting of dilute subcutaneous Tumescent Epinephrine Lidocaine (TEL) for bloodless painless liposuction totally by local anesthesia. In 1989 he developed the first sterile tumescent infiltration tubing for use with an off-the-shelf laboratory peristaltic pump, which permitted power-assisted subcutaneous infiltration of large volumes of TEL. In 1990 he founded HK Surgical, Inc., a surgical device company focused on tumescent drug delivery (TDD) of lidocaine and many other injectable drugs.

Jeff grew up surfing in San Clemente, California. When he graduated from UC Riverside (BA, Mathematics, 1967) he had saved $1000 which sustained him for the next 12 months. He hitchhiked to NYC, then worked on a freighter for passage to Europe. He studied in Paris for six months, and while there witnessed the May 1968 student protests and nationwide strike. While hitching through Europe, he was in Prague during the invasion by the Soviet Union. Upon returning to California, he studied at UCSD (MS, Mathematics, 1971). He was admitted to the first class of the UC Berkeley-UCSF Joint Medical Program (MD, 1972-1976).
